GM,

Please check my BCC list. Per our conversation and my personal reflection I will slow my pace a little (if this is possible considering the work load) but try to make major improvements in the quality of my work (read: do it the way GM wants it done when writing). Part of this would be to make your job easier. Please check my BCC list and I will begin including the BCC list in my JB report each week. I hope this is a step in the right direction.

Thanks for your support and guidance.

Hello Jane:

Based upon discussion with Corporate Communications, we have revised the times for the different activities that will be conducted on Wednesday (09/26/07). Please find a revised Weekend report which reflects this adjustment.

We also received a revised VIN list from NUMMI for the Tacoma Pre-Delivery Correction (port mod). We have updated that information as well.

Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions on this report or its contents.

Thank you!
